

Mock Trial Character Portrait

Think about your character in the mock trial. What might they wear if they were to have a portrait painted? What would they want known about themselves?

Bring in your props and costume pieces on Monday to take character portraits! We will be using our cameras and backdrops. Come prepared! We will keep costumes and props stored here at school for the mock trial.

If you need to, you may work to make props or pieces for your costume on Thursday and Friday (if you are F block).

Photographs will be graded on the following criteria:

- Photo tells a story about the character through prop symbolism. (3 pts.)
- Photo tells a story about the character through choice of costume. (3 pts.)
- Photo tells a story about the character through background/location of portrait. (3 pts.)
- Photo is taken in focus. (3 pts.)
- Photo demonstrates planning and composition. (3 pts.)
